

LONDON • PARIS • WASHINGTON, D.C.

The European Patent Lawyers Association
and
The Federal Circuit Bar Association
proudly present the FIRST in a series of international webcasts:

VIEWS ACROSS THE POND:
IP UNIFORMITY AND THE INTERNATIONAL COMMUNITY***

Monday, April 2, 2007
12:00PM - 2:00PM EDT

Panelists to Include:

Kevin Mooney
President
European Patent Lawyers Association
London, England

Thierry Sueur
Business Europe (Formerly UNICE)
Paris, France

Pierre Veron
Former President
European Patent Lawyers Association
Paris, France

Donald Dunner
Finnegan, Henderson, Farabow, Garret and
Dunner, LLP
Washington, D.C.

Congressman Rick Boucher (Invited)
House of Representatives
Subcommittee on Courts, Internet & Intellectual Property, House Committee on the Judiciary
Washington, D.C.

Robert A. Armitage
Senior Vice President and General Counsel
Eli Lilly and Company
Washington, DC

With Moderator:

Kevin Casey
President
Federal Circuit Bar Association
Malvern, Pennsylvania

The Federal Circuit Bar Association (FCBA) and the European Patent Lawyers Association are pleased to present "Views Across the Pond: IP Uniformity and the International Community," the first in a series of international webcasts. This two-hour program will explore the uniformity of intellectual property law systems from historical, policy, and business perspectives.

Price for Webcast:
EPLAW Members: $50 US
(Enter code "ksusofmsmr" at checkout)

To register, please visit the website: <https://fedcirbar.webex.com/>. The registration password is "fbcaintl". Detailed instructions for participating are provided through the website.

* FCBA will seek CLE registration from applicable states for those registrants from within the United States.